The Court continued and held for Ten days at the Court House started on Wednesday the 10th day of February 1873.

This cause came on to be heard and it was suggested that since the last decree was entered Leah Wilson has died intestate leaving her only heirs Leah Wilson, Mary J. Wilson and Charles Wilson alias Andrew Cannon her rights descended. And it being further suggested that Florence L. Wilson intermarried with Isaac Fletcher by whom she had issue one child that died in infancy & named and that the said Florence L. Fletcher (aka Wilson) then died intestate and her interest in the lands descended to her brothers and sisters and their descedents - in common with the lifetime estate of her husband Isaac Fletcher an omission of the plffs. And by virtue of all the parties this suit is revived so far as the said Catherine L. Andrie rights are concerned in the name of Leah Wilson Mary Jane Wilson Leah Wilson (alias Andrew Cannon) and as to progress in their rights as far as her rights are concerned.

And it is further ordered on motion of Isaac Fletcher and by consent of the parties that so far as the right of Florence Fletcher are concerned it having acted in the brothers and sisters and their descendants who are parties to this suit as to their interests after the death of the said Isaac Fletcher is concerned a revivor is necessary to be made against them as they are already parties to the said. But as to Isaac Fletcher the cause is revived in against him and as to progress in his name to be clusion. It further appearing that Isaac Fletcher one of the commissioners appointed to divide the lands in the Bill and former decree mentioned, declines to act, he is removed and Peter Schuch is substituted as commissioner in his stead to act with the other commissioners heretofore appointed to divide the lands. The said commissioners are now ordered to divide the said lands into six equal lots as here-before ordered and allot to Catherine L. Andrie her share therein and one sixth part for simple, and to allot to Isaac Fletcher for his life the one sixth part - as directed by the limitation of Florence's interest for simple interest descending to her brothers and sisters and their descendants to take effect in possession after the life estate of Fletcher ends, his division of the same is now made between those owning it in fee It being suggested that Catherine L. Andrie in her life time bought of her sister Susan her one sixth part of said lands and died the owner thereof the said commissioners are ordered to lay out and allot the said Catherine's sixth and the said Susan's sixth in dividing lots to the said Catherine's heirs all other matters are reserved the commissioners are required to report to this Court how they have executed this decree and the cause is continued.
